The scholarship programs sponsored by the Ministry of Education of the Republic of China aim at encouraging foreigners to explore academic life in Taiwan, but not at covering every expense during their stay in Taiwan. We highly recommend serious applicants to prepare a realistic financial plan before they go to Taiwan. Please be aware that the cost of living in every city varies. Personal preferences of housing and boarding also attribute to great differences in costs.

The student who receives the scholarship should be insured according to the regulations. If one stays less than 6 months, s/he should be advised by the school to register for proper insurance against accidents.

Health check-up is required after you are awarded the scholarship and before you apply for a resident visa to Taiwan.
